University of Wisconsin-Richland . . . the Best Start (in the USA) for the life you want

The BEST START for international students

At UW-Richland, among the advantages international students will find are:

- an international student advisor to assist you from your first contact through graduation and beyond
- a campus community with more than 25 years experience with international students
- an orientation program so you'll know people and places before classes start in the fall

- an International Club where you can meet friends from around the world and join in activities and special events
- options to connect with local community mentors
- convenient, modern student housing, just across from the campus
- free English and math tutoring
- an academic advisor to talk with you one-to-one as you plan your studies

The UW-Richland advantage

UW-Richland benefits and advantages that appeal to all students, including international students, are:

- the personal attention of a small, private college at a public university price
- the prestige of studying at the University of Wisconsin, one of the finest university systems in the world
- individualized attention as you work to succeed and excel
- assistance from a friendly, well-informed staff and award-winning faculty
- great opportunities for leadership and research experiences as a freshman or a sophomore

- the opportunity to earn an Associate of Arts & Science degree, the foundation of your bachelors degree, as you begin virtually any major
- free wireless Internet access, a computer lab and e-mail, for studying and to keep in touch with home
- on-campus fitness center and swimming pool
- the Guaranteed Transfer Program, which insures you admission as a junior to the UW 4-year campus of your choice, including UW-Madison

About Richland Center

Richland Center, a friendly and peaceful southwest Wisconsin community, is located on U.S. Highway 14 midway between the state capital of Madison and the city of La Crosse. Airports are located in both La Crosse and Madison. Taxi service is available in Richland Center. Parking on campus is free.
